The Summit Valley News

October 2004

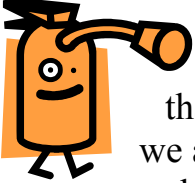

Next Meeting

Our next meeting will be at the Navy Marine Club 1310 E.

Sieberling Ave. in Peoria Heights, 7:00 P.M. on Tuesday, October 12th 2004.

Safety Tip of the Month

Vern Mall reminded us all that even though we aren't getting much flying in we still need to think about safety. That being shop safety.

Flying Site Committee

Following Bob's test flights

with city officials and further investigation into sunset locations throughout the year, we now know that the combination of sun location and layout of flying site #2 would result in a flight line that looks into the sun much of the time. This combined with a flurry of activity among a few members putting forth efforts to determine the best new flying site location, prompted the club officers to put together an official committee and appoint a leader to keep those efforts focused. Paul Cobb has been given the enviable task of leading our group of dedicated (and sleepless) group of volunteers who put together a preferred site recommendation to take forward to the city. TJ and Bob will meet with the Washington City Council on Monday requesting their approval to develop a flying site east of Washington on the groups recommended site. Be sure to attend the membership meeting on Oct 12 where TJ will provide us feedback from the council meeting. In a preliminary meeting with one city council member it appears we will have support for this proposed site which has a much larger flying area and fewer restrictions than the old Summit Valley site. We hope to share good news on Tuesday.

Golden Divot Award

This months golden divot award is unique in the lack of qualified award nominees identified during the judging process. T.J. prodded members for some good stories but only managed to learn of a couple minor mishaps. TJ Bolen admitted one of the minor incidents but it was found to be unworthy of our coveted award. Further conversation revealed that Jay Monce also had an incident. Although a minor one, the fact that Jay wasn't in attendance at the meeting quickly swayed the esteemed panel of judges (all those in attendance) to award this month's award to none other than Jay Monce. Congratulations Jay!
